While indulging in a few reminiscen-ces of the past among a party of friends a few days ago, a well known ship-broker of Boston related an incident of his of Boston related an incident of his business experience. A man one day entered his office with letters of introduction, proposing to charter a vessel to proceed to Coatmooalcos river, in Mexico, and bring a cargo of dyewood to Boston. He produced a chart of the river, pointed out the exact spot where the wood would be found, and gave much the wood would be found, and gave much interesting information in regard to the country and its productions, showing an intimate acquaintance with the business in hand. He remarked that if the first cargo of wood brought here should sell at a profit, he would want to charter several vessels for the trade. A bargain was accordingly made with him; he was furnished a vessel in which he took passage, and she proceeded to her destination. FOR SALE. Long Island, New York

The City is situated on Long island, 55 miles from New York city, the Long Island railroad running centrally through Ida City. Lots there are hereby offered for sale on the following terms: Fifty dollars each, on a credit of ten years, nayable in ten annual instalments—say $5.00 per year on each lot. The parties owning the above property prepose to sell to the Southers people one-half of the lots, say 4000, on the above terms, without interest. The East River Bridge is now in process of construction, connecting Manhattan Island, upon which New York is situated, with Long Island.

Which See Total Ind.

This is a good opportunity for any person of this section of country to invest small sums in the purchase of these lots. Terms are easy, and within the reach of all. Property on Long Island will rapidly increase in value as soon as East River Bridge is completed.
